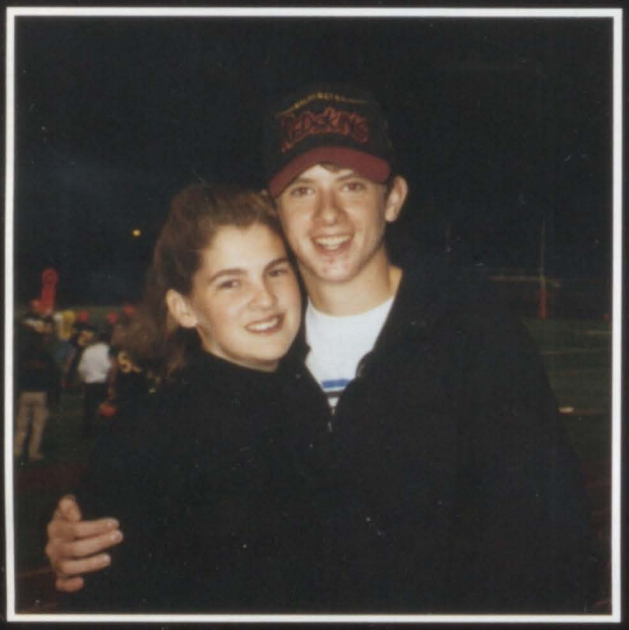
INSIDE THE ORANGE

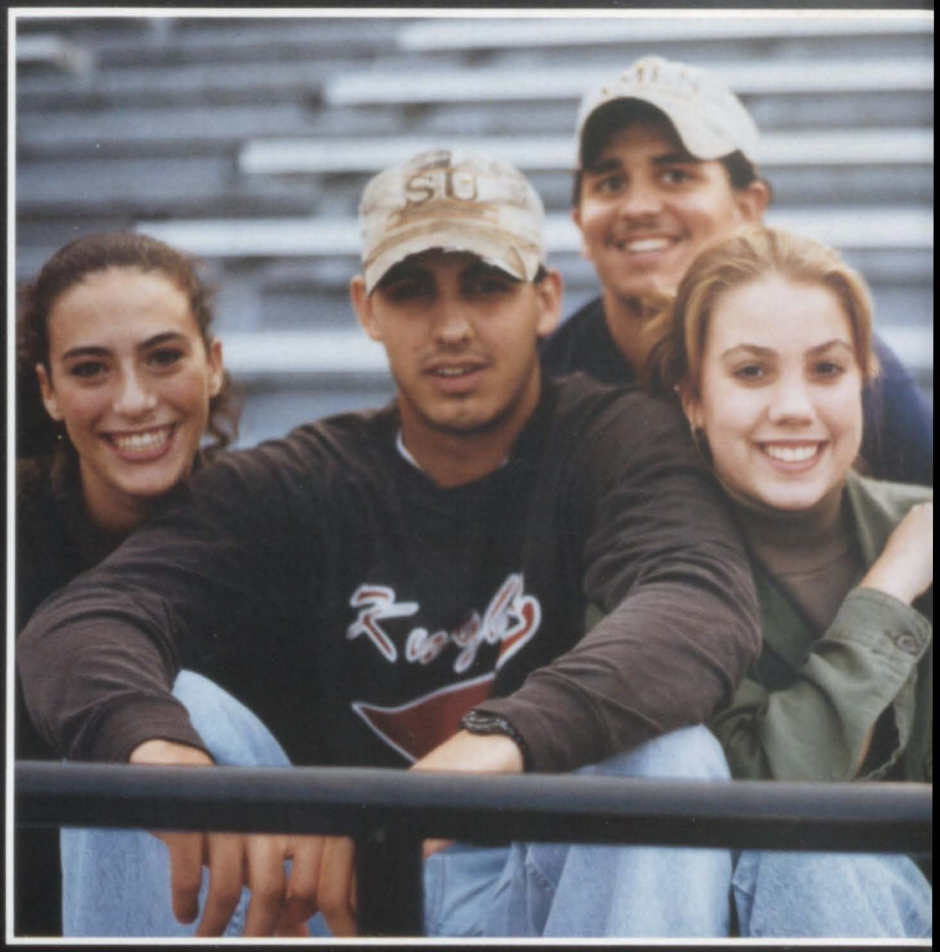
At Rome Free Academy there is a longstanding tradition of excellence. The school has been recognized throughout the state for its accomplishments on the playing fields, in the classroom, and in the fine arts.

This year we have selected the theme "Inside the Orange". This theme represents the interaction of students and the activities in which they participate. The orange is a representation of our school, and each part of the orange represents a different activity in the school. For example, the juice represents the sports teams. Our school offers spirited and exciting activities for total student involvement. There is a wide variety of activities that satisfy all of the different skills and talents our students possess.

SITTING BACK. E. Longo, V. DiMaggio, L. Costello, S. Thomas, and L. Vickers are just watching the game.

WE FEEL LOVE IN THE AIR. Jason Utter and Jennifer Wright are showing their pretty faces.





THE GIRLS. L. Brement, D. Wishart, E. Longo, A. Smothers, and M. Mosca are showing their support at a football game.

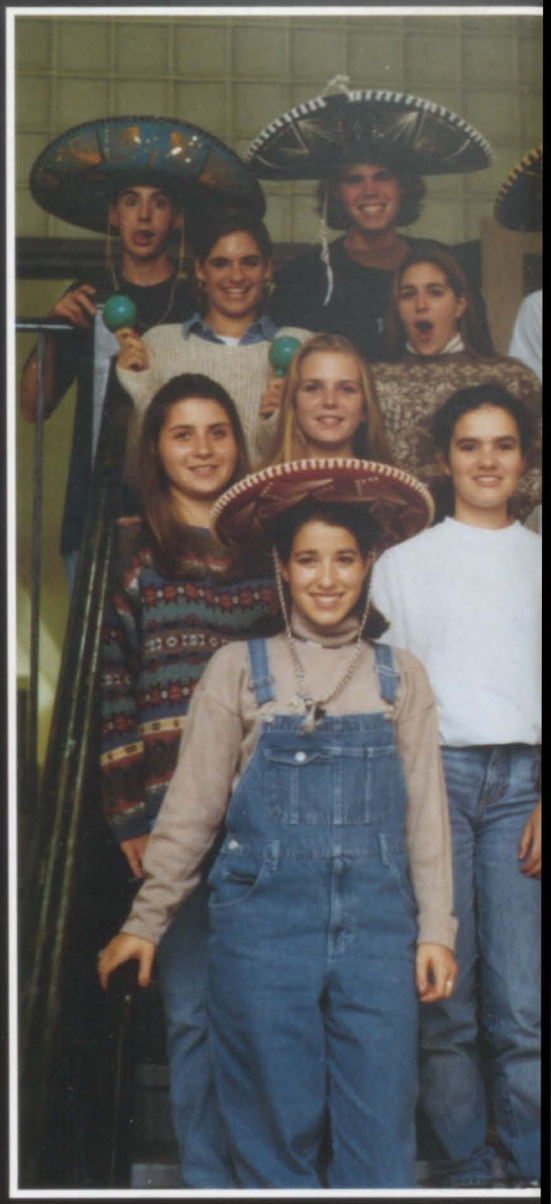
JUST CHILL'N. A. Pearson, K. Cannady, S. Martin, N. McClendon, and C. Jones are just hanging out at lunch.

BUSHELS

EVEN IN HIGH SCHOOL MOM STILL PACKS THEIR LUNCH. C. Landry, J. Bearup, W. Yaddow, and R. Marr are showing off their lunchboxes.

THE LADY KNIGHTS ARE BARGAIN SHOPPING AT THE KNIGHT SPOT. Kristine Hugo and Susan Grow are deciding what to buy!

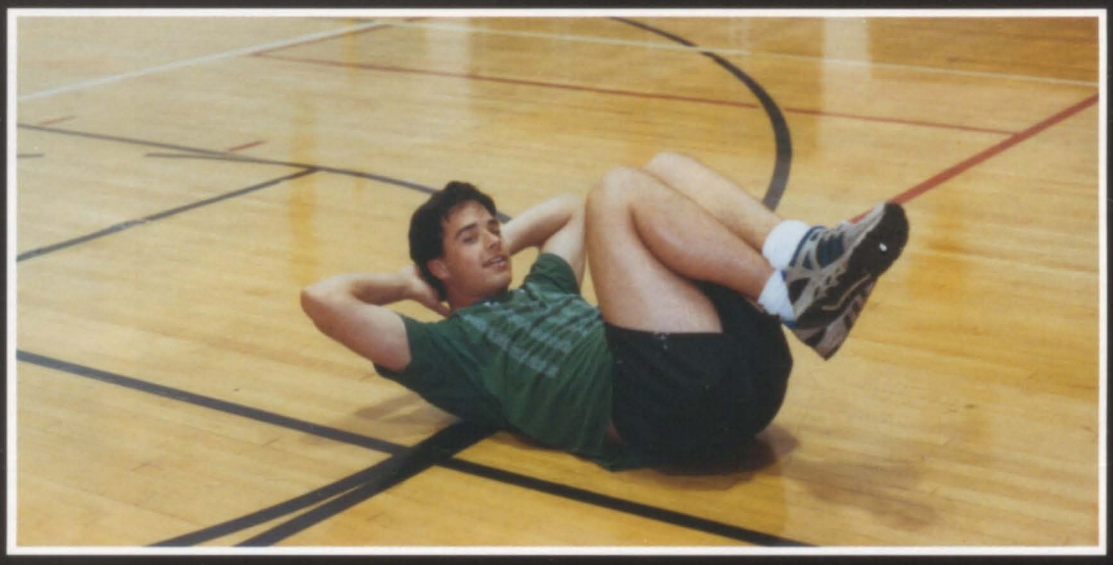
These pictures represent the good times involved with Rome Free Academy. Many activities are offered at R.F.A. These BUSHELS of people are just a taste of the fun that the students have here!

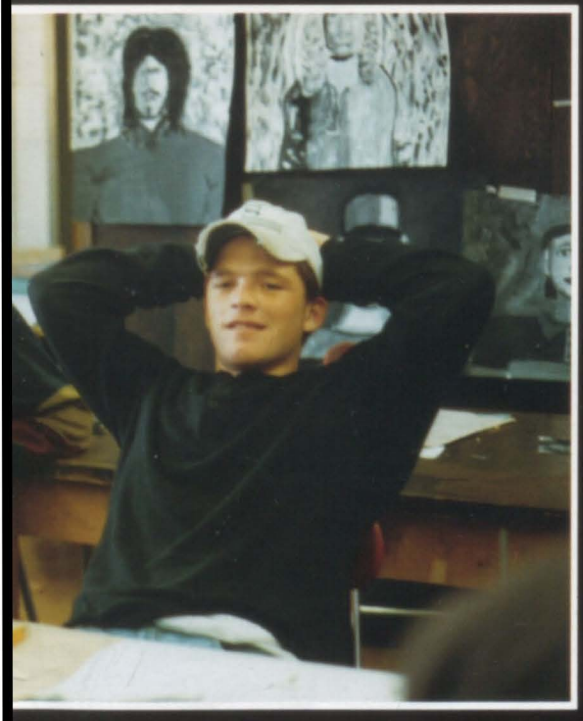


DEEP THINKERS. Becky Minor and Larry Russell

GROUP THERAPY. T. Aikens, K. Hugo, J. Calcara, C. Walrath, D. Materese, N. DiMaggio, and Erica Longo.

BARRELS





Come on Cliffy, its only 10 pounds! Chad Cliffard

TROPICAL PARADISE

JUNIOR PROM 1995

The 1995 Junior Prom was held at Alfredo's Ristorante on May 19, 1995 from 7:00 pm. until 12:00 am.. The theme was "Tropical Paradise". The colors chosen for the evening were teal, purple, and yellow. Entertainment, provided by Whirling Discs DJ Service, included the playing of the prom song, "Wish You Were Here", by Pink Floyd.

The evening was highlighted by the crowning of the King, Dan Ingham, and the Queen, Jennifer D'Amore. The court consisted of Rob Corridene and Noelle Slocum, Brian Chase and Andi DiBari, Sam St. Thomas and Gretchen Flack, and Robb Marchione and Kiki Hinman.

The prom was organized by a committee consisting of Kevin Adey, Melissa Bell, Corinn Bovi, Lauren Bovi, Jim Catanzaro, Jessica Cavano, Kelly Gallagher, Jason Gleasman, Amber Holly, Staci Murphy, Nick Rizzo, Beth Shea, Mike Simons, Cassie Smith, Erin VanWaldick, Kara Wilson, and the advisors of the class of 1996, Mrs. Horine and Mr. Corredine.

HAVING A GOOD TIME. Angie Townsend, Anne Marie Pristera, and Melissa Sauer are all smiles.

PEP RALLY

On October 13, the student body assembled at the stadium to honor all of the sport teams. This pep rally was held both 7th & 8th periods which made it the biggest pep rally in RFA's history. All of the team captains introduced their teams and made a short remark on how their season was going. The band also played a few songs and a few selected singers sang the National Anthem and the schools alma mater to start off the event. The rally also consisted of competitions, such as limbo, and the introduction of the homecoming court.

1995

Homecoming weekend was one to remember. It started Oct. 13 with the Homecoming football game against CNS. RFA won 21-0! The traditional floats were brought back after several years of being banned. The Homecoming Court was announced: Corinn Bovi, Mathew Barry, and Lauren Bovi, Brian Chase, and Kelly Gallagher, Robb Corredine, and Kara Wilson, Adam Miller. The King and Queen were Danial Ingham and Kelly Corigliano. (pictured below)

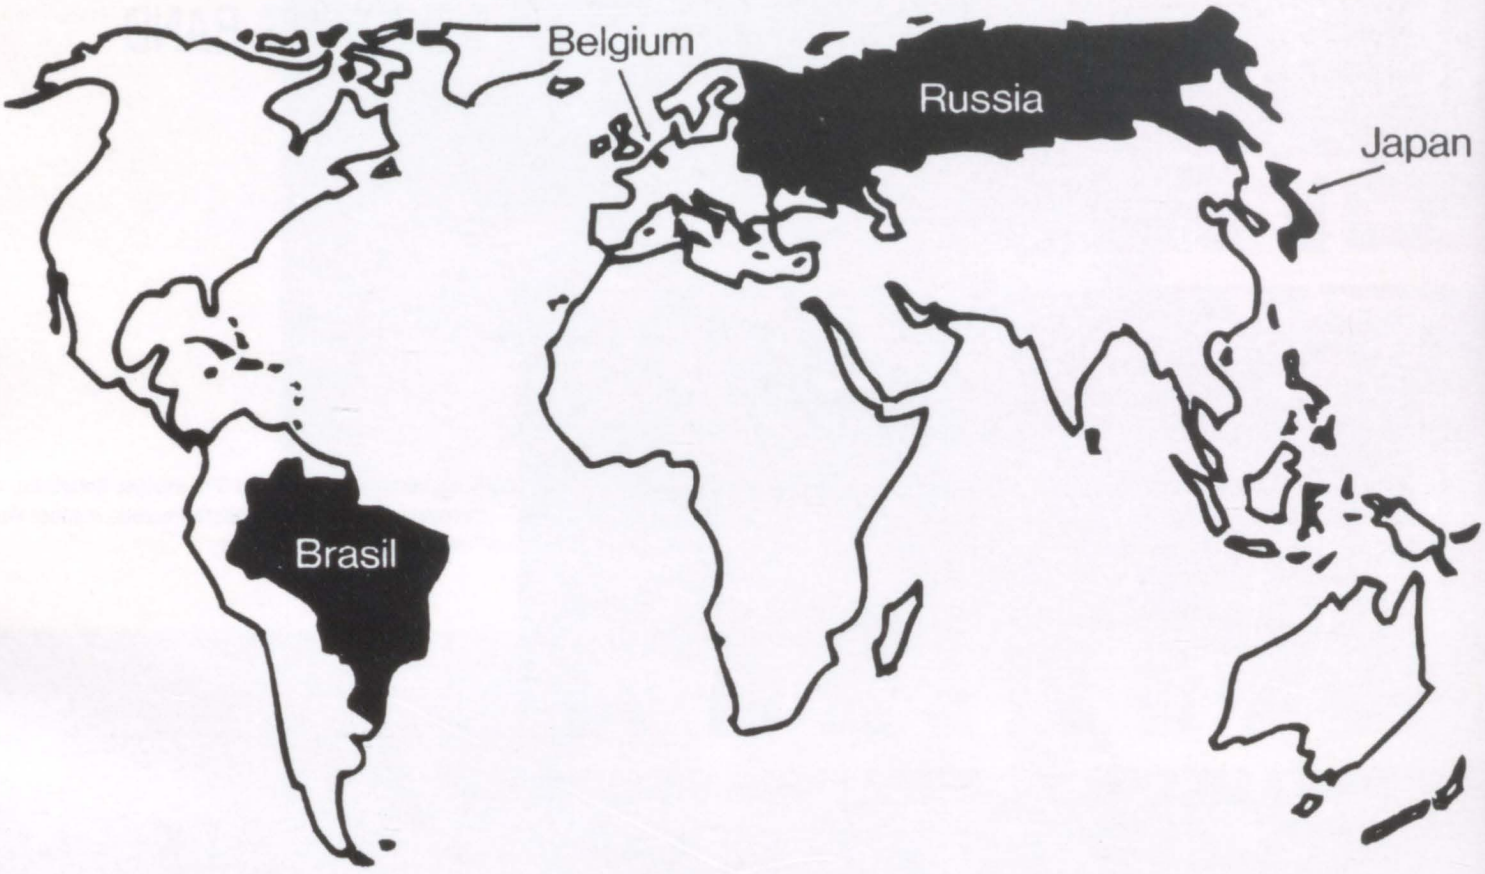
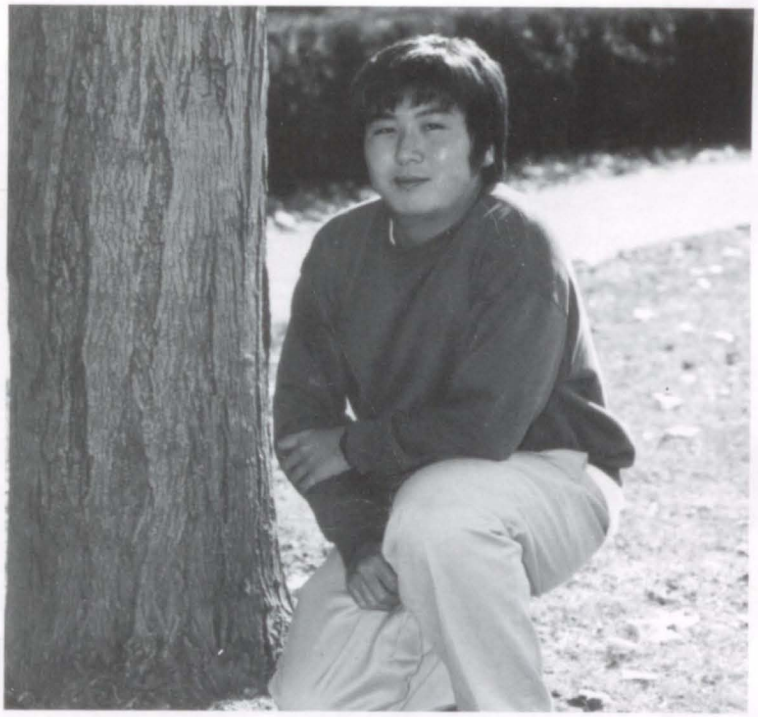
EARTH PAGES



Andrey Vladimirovich Dozhdikov - Andrey comes from Lipetsk, Russia. He is a senior at RFA and came to the USA to learn more about the American culture, the language and system of law. In the future he hopes to become a lawyer. As a 16 year-old, he is young to be a high school senior in the USA, but in Russia there are only 11 grades. The weather in Russia is similar to that of Rome, NY; it is mild in winter and warm in summer.

Anne- France Olwi - She comes from Liege, Belgium. She is a senior at RFA and came to learn more about the American culture, the language and American perfume. She came from the second largest town in Belgium into the rather smaller city of Rome, she noticed considerable differences in many things. For example, there are buses which run almost all day. On the other hand, Rome there is limited bussing hours. The school is totally different and much harder in her country. She plays volleyball and enjoys going shopping.

Larissa Tomczack - She comes from Campo Largo, Brazil. She is a senior at RFA and came to the USA to learn the American culture, the language, and lifestyle. She is 16 years old and studied the first semester in Brazil. The Brazilian school year starts in March and ends in November. In her school, the students always stay in the same room the teachers are the ones who walk through the school to find their students. COOL!



Kosuke Uchino - Also known as Nick, is from Morioka City, Japan. He is a senior at RFA and came to the USA to learn the culture and the personality of the Americans. School is much easier in Japan because they don't have the same alphabet. His favorite American class is History. In his spare time he plays soccer, and he is also in the RFA band. At the end of this year, he hopes to have a lot of American friends, especially girls!

Sara Simard, Katie Smith, Erica Longo, Mary Shearer, Amanda Smothers, Amy Jo Tenant, and Felicia Bodley are all smiles while shopping at the Knight Spot.
